Committee on Public Safety
Rules Governing Public Comment

1. Any member of the public wishing to speak must fill out a witness slip beforehand.
2. Each speaker, other than speakers presenting testimony at the request of the Committee, will be limited to a total of three minutes. The Chairman reserves the right to set a longer or shorter, uniformly applicable, time for comment at a particular meeting depending upon such factors as the size of the agenda and the number of people wishing to speak.
3. Public comment will be limited to subjects on the meeting's agenda.
4. Comment will be terminated if it is irrelevant, repetitious, or disruptive.
5. The chairman reserves the right to set aside a specific portion of the meeting for public comments.
6. Failure to adhere to the direction of the Chairman in applying these Rules may result in removal from the hearing room.
