

ORDINANCE

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO:

SECTION 1. Section 8-4-270 of the Municipal Code of the City of Chicago is hereby amended by deleting the language stricken, and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

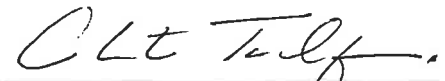

8-4-270 Advertising and signs on buildings.

(a) No person shall post, stick, stamp, tack, paint, or otherwise fix, or cause the same to be done by another person, any notice, placard, bill, handbill, sign, poster, card advertisement, or other device calculated to attract the attention of the public, upon any building, garage, or part thereof, wall or part thereof, or window, without first obtaining the written consent of the owner, agent, lessee, or occupant of such premises or structure.

(b) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that any person, business, or entity whose goods, services, or activities are promoted in any matter posted or fixed in violation of this section is the person who violated or caused another person to violate this section.

(c) Any person who violates this section shall also be liable for the cost of repair of any damage caused by such violation and for any and all claims arising out of the violation of this section, including any claims relating to the structures upon which the material was posed or fixed.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect upon passage and publication.
